

INCREASE IN NON-PRESCRIBED FENTANYL USE

Based on Health Trends™ surveys, 71% of physicians surveyed believe the PRESCRIPTION DRUG CRISIS WORSENEd during the pandemic¹

Analysis of clinical drug test results from a national reference lab showed an INCREASE in detection of NON-PRESCRIBED FENTANYL¹

26.7%

Non-prescribed fentanyl use early in the pandemic¹

40.5%

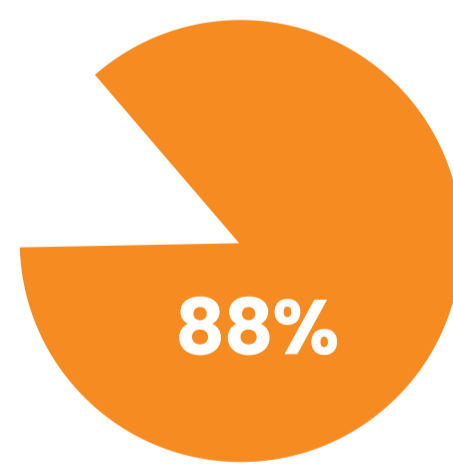

By early April 2020, the rate had increased to 40.5%¹

However, studies show there has been a RAPID DECLINE in the amount of drug testing performed

70% weekly DECLINE in drug testing (March-May 2020)²

Most physicians surveyed (88%) agreed that clinical drug testing is critical to preventing drug misuse¹

NOW is the time to increase our use of this essential tool!

